

Contact Barbara Dobrinsky Holtzman

If you want to call on the phone, use the virtual office number: 347-321-4237

This number is local to Manhattan, New York City, NY. If you don't leave a message, and I'm either busy or I can't see or recognize your number, I won't return your call - so please do.

If you do not need to talk to me right away, it is better to send me an email with your contact information, why you want to talk to me, and when I can get in touch with you.

The best email address to use: contactme@bdhgrp.com

Make sure to use your real name, and put something in the subject line that I'll recognize, because I get enough spam to feed a continent.

Email should be answered within one business day, most often much sooner. If not, feel free to call and leave a nasty message, but not too nasty, because then I may not call you back.

You can also also send me a contact request via these instant message systems:

AOL: bdholtzman

skype: bdholtzman

I prefer calling with skype; find out about it here: <http://www.bdhgrp.com/skype>

Or join these networks, get in touch that way, and invite me to be in yours:

Ecademy <http://www.ecademy.com/account.php?id=78722>*

Linked In <http://www.linkedin.com/in/bdobrinsky>

Facebook <http://www.facebook.com/profile.php?id=520010614>

Xing <http://www.xing.com/go/invite/3565584.5e5856>

academici <http://www.academici.net/bdholtzman>

They are all free to join, but I can offer you three free months on ecademy as a PowerNetworker; *when you go to sign up, put the work blackstar, lower case, in the code box at the bottom of the form. This will also work if you are currently a "graystar," an ecademy free member. I think if you sign up with Xing and Academici you will also get a free month as a paid member, but I'm not sure.

I send out an irregular newsletter that comes with several free ebooks, some nifty software, and you can, of course, unsubscribe any time. Get it here:
